Paul Edmondson : A Year of Shakespeare: Re-living the World Shakespeare Festival (The Arden Shakespeare) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised A Year of Shakespeare: Re-living the World Shakespeare Festival (The Arden Shakespeare):

A Year of Shakespeare gives a uniquely expert and exciting overview of the largest Shakespeare celebration the world has ever known: the World Shakespeare Festival 2012. This is the only book to describe and analyse each of the Festival's 73 productions in well-informed, lively reviews by eminent and up-and-coming scholars and critics from the UK and around the world. A rich resource of critical interest to all students, scholars and lovers of Shakespeare, the book also captures the excitement of this extraordinary event. A Year of Shakespeare provides:

- a ground-breaking collection of Shakespearean reviews, covering all of the Festival's productions;
- a dynamic visual record through a wide range of production photographs;
- incisive analysis of the Festival's significance in the wider context of the Cultural Olympiad 2012.

All the world really is a stage, and it's time for curtain-up!

Provides a comprehensive expert view of the proceedings, with reviews of all 74 productions that capture the vibrancy of this once-in-a-lifetime event.
