Noel King, Deane Williams : Australian Film Theory and Criticism: Volume 2 Interviews before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Australian Film Theory and Criticism: Volume 2 Interviews:

A three-volume project tracing key critical positions, people and institutions in Australian film, Australian Film Theory and Criticism interrogates not only the origins of Australian film theory but also its relationships to adjacent disciplines and institutions. The second volume in the series, this book gathers interviews with national and international film theorists and critics to chart the development of different discourses in Australian film studies through the decades. Seeking to examine the position of film theorists and their relationship to film industry practitioners and policy-makers, this volume succeeds mightily in reasserting Australian film's place on the international scholarly agenda.

About the Author Noel King is an independent scholar. Deane Williams is associate professor of film and television studies at Monash University, Melbourne.
