From Routledge : Contemporary Theatres in Europe: A Critical Companion before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Contemporary Theatres in Europe: A Critical Companion:

Through specific examples, case studies and essays by specialist writers, academics, and a new generation of theatre researchers, this collection of specially commissioned essays looks at current theatre practices across Europe. From Theatre du Soleil to Societas Raffaello Sanzio, the authors reconsider the possibilities of theatre practice, its relation to history and location and its place in Europe at the turn of the twenty-first century. Contemporary Theatres in Europe examines a wide range of topics including: mainstream European theatre, experimental performance, music theatre, theatre for children, dance theatre. Tailor-made for students, offering clear examples of different ways of thinking and writing about performance, this is a richly detailed introduction which brings key themes to life for all students of European theatre.

About the Author Joe Kelleher is Senior Lecturer at Roehampton University of Surrey. Nicholas Ridout is Lecturer in Performance at Queen Mary, University of London.
