Daphne Du Maurier, Nell Leyshon : Don't Look Now (Oberon Modern Plays) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Don't Look Now (Oberon Modern Plays):

Following the death of their young daughter, John and Laura visit Venice to try and escape their grief. But when the couple meet two aged sisters, one of whom claims to have psychic visions of the dead girl, strange things start to happen. Filmed in 1973 with Julie Christie and Donald Sutherland, Daphne du Maurier's classic thriller starts as a moving examination of grief but gradually becomes a chilling tale with a dark and terrifying climax. This adaptation of Don't Look Now premiered in 2007 at the Sheffield Lyceum with a transfer to the Lyric Hammersmith.

About the Author Nell Leyshon writes drama and fiction. Her radio plays have been broadcast on Radio 4 and her stories have appeared in various anthologies. The Farm is her first stage play.
