From Routledge : Fifty Modern and Contemporary Dramatists (Routledge Key Guides) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Fifty Modern and Contemporary Dramatists (Routledge Key Guides):

Fifty Modern and Contemporary and Dramatists is a critical introduction to the work of some of the most important and influential playwrights from the 1950s to the present day. The figures chosen are among the most widely studied by students of drama, theatre and literature and include such celebrated writers as: Samuel Beckett; Caryl Churchill; Anna Deavere Smith; Jean Genet; Sarah Kane; Heiner Müller; Arthur Miller; Harold Pinter; Sam Shephard Each short essay is written by one of an international team of academic experts and offers a detailed analysis of the playwrights' key works and career. The introduction provides an historical and theatrical context to the volume, which provides an invaluable overview of modern and contemporary drama.
