Liz Lochhead : Good Things (NHB Modern Plays) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Good Things (NHB Modern Plays):

A romantic comedy about finding love the second (or third or fourth) time, from 'Scotland's greatest living dramatist' Scotland on Sunday. Suddenly single and with the dreaded 'Big Five-0' staring her in the face, Susan also has to cope with a father in his second childhood, a daughter in the throes of aggravated adolescence and an ex who, unfortunately, still has the power to wound... Set in the charity shop where Susan's a volunteer, Good Things is a poignant, hilarious play with a lot to say about finding love later in life. 'Delightful... as funny, as touching, and yet as emotionally true as anything this supremely humane writer has yet produced' - *The Times 'A pan-generational smash hit in the making' - The Herald, Scotland 'Popular theatre that tackles a real contemporary issue with terrific theatrical energy and skill' - Joyce McMillan Scotsman

"...the artful way Liz Lochhead takes us there in her delightful new play is as funny, as touching, and yet as emotionally true as anything this supremely humane writer has yet produced.' The Times ; '...popular theatre that tackles a real contemporary issue with terrific theatrical energy and skill...' Joyce McMillan The Scotsman *; '...a pan-generational smash hit in the waiting.' The Herald "About the AuthorLiz Lochhead is a poet, playwright, performer and broadcaster. She was born in Motherwell in 1947, studied at Glasgow School of Art and now lives in Glasgow. She first attracted notice with her play "Mary Queen of Scots Got Her Head Chopped Off", and subsequently with "Perfect Days", "Misery Guts" and her adaptation of "Medea".
