Caryl Churchill : Icecream (NHB Modern Plays) (Royal Court Theatre Series) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Icecream (NHB Modern Plays) (Royal Court Theatre Series):

An unsettling look at British attitudes to America and vice versa, from one of our leading dramatists. "The idea of Oregon, the word, just the word Oregon really thrills me'. 'You can't help loving England. The green fields. The accents. The pubs.' Set half in the UK and half in the US, Icecream tells the story of two couples - an American man and wife and an English brother and sister. Implicated in each other's lives more than any of them would wish, their respective love affairs with each other's countries prove difficult to explain.

About the Author Caryl Churchill (1938-) is probably the most respected woman dramatist in the English-speaking world. She is the author of some twenty plays including Light Shining in Buckinghamshire, Cloud Nine, Top Girls, Serious Money, The Skriker, Blue Heart, Far Away and A Number, seen and admired all over the world.
