Douglas Anderson : Mystery in Trib 2: Alaska hiking, flying, and gold mining adventure interwoven with a World War II mystery before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mystery in Trib 2: Alaska hiking, flying, and gold mining adventure interwoven with a World War II mystery:

As a sequel to Gold in Trib 1, Doug's new book, Mystery in Trib 2 is an interesting blend of fact and fiction; factual in terms of the flying, hiking, and gold-mining two friends enjoyed; fictional in the form of a cleverly woven mystery concerning the loss of a World War II military aircraft. The story is well researched and so masterfully formulated the reader will be hard pressed to separate historical fact from fiction. Mystery in Trib 2 portrays wilderness Alaska accurately and as it can be experienced by anyone fired with a lust for outdoor adventure.

Alaskan Aviator About the Author
Doug Anderson, born in Derby, England, has a spirit of adventure and a willingness to accept a challenge which resulted in emigration to Canada in 1967 and then to Alaska in 1977. Smitten by the beauty of this great land, Doug soon earned his wings and started to enjoy scenic Alaska from a new perspective. He also found himself flying, hiking, and gold prospecting with his friend Hagen Gauss. Together they explored, prospected and mined for gold in the tributaries of the Ladue River, north of the Alaska Highway, near the Canada border. This challenging wilderness adventure inspired Doug to write his first book entitled Gold In Trib 1 and now, the sequel, Mystery in Trib 2. Doug resides in Anchorage with his wife, Jennifer, and works as an independent consultant. Hagen remains a near neighbor and close friend.
