Mark O'Rowe : Our Few and Evil Days (NHB Modern Plays) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Our Few and Evil Days (NHB Modern Plays):

Mark O'Rowe's Our Few and Evil Days is a chilling yet deeply human story about the limits of devotion. Adele and her parents have always been close. But recently, that closeness has been tainted by an increasing sense of mistrust. Tonight, a visit from a stranger will force them to confront the terrifying reality of their relationship. Our Few and Evil

Days premiered at the Abbey Theatre, Dublin, in September 2014 as part of the Dublin Theatre Festival, in a production directed by the author and featuring Sinead Cusack and Ciaran Hinds.
