Conor McPherson : This Lime Tree Bower (NHB Modern Plays) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised This Lime Tree Bower (NHB Modern Plays):

A poignant and gripping tale told through three interlinking monologues from the multi-award winning author of The Weir. Three young men from a small seaside town near Dublin tell us in overlapping monologues of their inextricably linked lives and the eventful week which was to change things for good... Winner of a Thames TV Award, a

Guinness/National Theatre Ingenuity Award and the Meyer Whitworth Award. 'A touching, marvellously entertaining play which tells a gripping tale with assured panache. This is a piece of real richness' - Daily Telegraph
